Methodist Centennial Chefoo Centre

The Chefoo Centre as it is commonly known was closed for almost 9 months for it to undergo a massive facelift to offer better facilities and comfort to campers and for those in pursuit of retreat in the hills. The fully renovated and refurbished Methodist Centennial Chefoo Centre was opened mid-November 2009.

A popular choice for Christians in Malaysia and Singapore, the 210-bedded resort is located 1,542 meters above sea level and enjoys cool climate with temperature no higher than 20°C and rarely falling below 10°C.

Cameron Highlands is home to Malaysia's tea, vegetable and flower growing industry. The Chefoo Centre is sited on six acres of land amidst surrounding hills and greenery forest with complete privacy of its own, just outside Brinchang town and 5 km from Tanah Rata.
