JEREMIAH SCHOOL

Jeremiah School (JS) has been running since 2003 and we are really amazed at how God worked in the hearts of all those who came. We thank God for the TRAC leaders who conceived this dream and realize it by starting this school. We continue to bring a holistic awareness of God's ministry to the youths who come for this school.

The calling and challenge of the Christian Vocation remains the heart beat of Jeremiah School. With this in mind, the syllabus was developed to challenge the students in their walk with God. The areas include Spiritual Formation, Doctrinal Studies, Bible Studies and Theology, Personal Development, Ministry Skills and Practical Ministry.

Their practical skills are put to test during mission week where they will go and share God's word with strangers. They will also plan an evangelistic program during this time. It is indeed hard work for them and we can see how they have grown in the Lord and also in relation with one another by taking ownership of the program.

Jeremiah School is a place for youths who are serious about God and living out their faith in the world. They have to have a desire to learn, develop, grow and be transformed in the Lord. We hope that they will be a generation of God-fearing, faithful, persevering and selfless young leaders who will be of a different spirit.

It is amazing every year that God sends in the right number of students and mentors for 6 weeks. We praise God for their dedication and commitment.

TESTIMONIES

TESTIMONY 1

Being a mentor in Jeremiah School means a lot to me, because JS is close to my heart. I truly count it an honour and privilege to be given the opportunity to be a part of this program in reaching out and impacting the life of the younger generation with the Gospel.

13 years has passed since I was a participant in JS, and every time I look back, I am thankful to God and to my mentors for the blessings. It was at JS 2005 that God confirmed with me my calling for full-time ministry, and it was through JS that I have forged relationships with mentors who are still mentoring me to this very day in my journey. Through the different syllabus, sessions, and facilitators, I was exposed to a deeper understanding of God's word and a deeper relationship with Him. I would firmly say that, my time and experience in JS has left an indelible ink in me to continue to persevere in working out my faith in Christ.

From that year to where I am today, being a part of the organising team for JS is nothing short of how amazing God is. For I did not planned for any of this to happen, yet time and again He surprises me. God is indeed good!

Thus, being now mentor for the third year, I am constantly reminded of the selfless love and sacrifices my mentors gave. It is with such a mantle and example that I too am challenge and inspired to be a mentor to the many youths that will comes my way. By the grace of God and in all humility, I pray that the Lord will use me as His instrument towards the mentees. So that they may come to know and love Christ, to put Him first in all of their lives, and to hold dear to the Gospel.

TESTIMONY 2

If you've spent your school holidays in YLDPs, if you've grown up religiously as a Methodist Sunday School kid and then going through MYF, this is what you'll most probably hear. Yet, upon completing SPM, I did not make it to Jeremiah School. Hence, though curious, I never really understood what Jeremiah School was about.

God has His own timing and miraculous ways of doing things. Last year, I finished my tertiary education round late October and an opportunity to serve as a mentor at Jeremiah School opened up. Thinking that this would be a great start before I enter the next phase of adulthood, I went along with it. More than serving, I was truly blessed by the experience.

I experienced God in a very real manner and His Words spoke to me at very apt moments. Whilst mentoring, I was also in the midst of applying for jobs and had relationship complications. These problems were distracting. But, being a mentor, it pushed me to address these issues. Looking back, I wouldn't be able to cope with all the disappointments if it weren't for Jeremiah School. Through His Word, my fellow mentors and the support of my mentees, I was reminded about how His grace is sufficient, at perfect timings.

Lastly, Jeremiah School taught me the importance of a Christian community. Just like the early church, Christians would often meet up daily in the temple courts, sharing meals with gladness and sincerity of heart. Being a Christian in this world is tough, there are constant worldly influence and cunning attacks from the evil one in subtle voices confusing us about what is true. Throughout the 6 weeks, Jeremiah School made me realise that having a group of accountable buddies, like-minded and single hearted, is essential as we journey in life.

TESTIMONY 3

Being a Mentor for Jeremiah School was definitely a different experience compared to when I was a student of the same. But I thank God for the opportunity to be give and share with this year's batch what I have learned when I was in their shoes.

It was a great joy for me to see their lives being impacted and transformed by God through the curriculum, activities and fellowship – I am indeed honoured to be part of it. I've learned that a mentor is not about "lording" over the younger ones, though we have the authority; rather, it is about journeying with them, recognising that the mistakes they make were no different than mine. This has allowed me to learn to see their lives and actions from their perspective. Being a mentor is not about forcing changes in their lives; rather, it is about sharing with them my own life, and how evident God is in my life.

Again, I am truly blessed to be part of the mentoring team in Jeremiah School 2019.

ADULT VOLUNTEERS-MENTORS

INFORMATION

Jeremiah School is staffed by officials from the TRAC Board of Youth Work. They oversee the running of the school, the development of curriculum and are actively involved in intentional mentoring of the JS students throughout the school term. Ever since JS started in 2003, we have found that some of the best learning and growing happens when mentoring takes place. In view of this, we need more adult volunteers to wear the shoes of a mentor and walk alongside the students. If you love youths and are available for 6 weeks, we'd like to encourage you to prayerfully consider this opportunity to serve.
